Dear Mr. Falconer:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA 2015-000063), dated October 27, 2014, in which you requested a copy of the Payment Bond for the Champlain Land Port of Entry Cargo Building Project.

Enclosed please find the requested document. We have redacted information pursuant to the fourth statutory exemption of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4)). The fourth statutory exemption permits an agency to withhold documents that contain commercial or financial information obtained from a person, that are privileged or confidential. We have also redacted handwritten and actual signatures pursuant to the sixth statutory exemption to the FOIA (5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6), which permits an agency to withhold personnel or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

You have a right to appeal the partial denial of the release of the information under FOIA. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to:

U.S. General services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1C)
1800 F Street, NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reason(s) why the withheld information should be released. Please enclose copies of your initial request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked prominently, Freedom of Information Act Appeal.

1800 F. Street, NW

Sincerely,
